

Tourism Law

This module provides fundamental concepts and principles of tourism law. The module places the importance and needs of information in the economic decision making process for hotels, restaurants, travel agencies, and other hospitality entities. The main objective of Tourism Law is to give the students the overall knowledge about national and international legal framework in this field. The chapters of this module aim to give the general principles of tourism field, the subjects and actors of tourism in Albania; the international legislation and Code of ethics in tourism; a classification of resources and responsibility for tourism administration; sector strategy of tourism, priority, politics and implementing plan, cooperation with other government institutions; World Tourism Organization, NGOs and European Union.

Module code

LAWS 425

Semester

6th Semester

Credits

3 ECTS

Language

English / Shqip

Duration

35 Hours / 2 Weeks

Study Program

Tourism and Hospitality Management

Module Lecturers

- Federico Wesselhoeft
- Ersida Teliti
- Brikela Ajce